

Participation Consent Form

Japan Karate Association
Headquarters Dojo

I consent to the following as regards to my participation in a course at Japan Karate Association (hereinafter called “JKA”) Headquarters Dojo.

1. JKA Headquarters shall bear no responsibility for any disease, injury or accident, except for the responsibility of providing emergency treatment in such an event. However, excluding cases where a participant has committed gross negligence, the following insurance benefit from insurance company (a.) or solatium from JKA(b.)(c.) are payable:

- a. Death or residual disability benefit: 3,100,000 yen
- b. In-patient hospitalization solatium: 2,000 yen per day
- c. Out-patient hospital solatium: 1,300 yen per day

* Insurance is provided by Recreation Insurance of Tokio Marine & Nichido Fire Insurance Co. Ltd. Premiums of 102 yen per day shall be included in course fees.

2. Participants shall be responsible for undergoing a medical examination by a doctor and confirming his/her state of health in advance of their participation.

3. JKA Headquarters shall bear no responsibility for any theft or loss.

4. Participants shall follow the instructions given by the instructor in charge, obey important points and maintain good manners. Otherwise, instructors can stop the training program and direct to leave the dojo. In that case, course fees shall not be refundable.

5. Course fees shall not be refundable in the event of cancellation due to natural disasters such as earthquakes, storms/floods, other foul weather, or due to accidents/incidents.

6. Participants shall apply for a course at JKA Headquarters Dojo after consenting to the aforementioned matters.
